Policy for using the Harvest Project Logo

Only fundraising events and activities endorsed by Harvest Project are entitled to use the Harvest Project logo for the specific promotion of an event or fundraising activity. Upon request, the Communications Director at Harvest Project can forward an approved electronic version of the Harvest Project logo to a third-party fundraiser for placement on posters, flyers, ad mats, banners or other printed matter for the sole promotion of the event. In addition, a third-party fundraiser may borrow other types of Harvest Project promotional items that are available such as banners, coin boxes, food collection boxes, brochures, or signage. Third-party fundraisers must adhere to this policy to retain the quality and integrity of the Harvest Project logo.

Media Relations Policy for Fundraising Events

You are welcome to respond to media inquiries regarding your fundraising event/activity. However, for all media inquiries regarding Harvest Project, we kindly ask you to follow our Media Relations Policy. As per the Media Relations Policy, our Communications Director is the designated contact person for Harvest Project for all media inquiries and the spokesperson in regard to all community relations and event publicity. Any inquiry regarding Harvest Project made by a member of the media to organizers of third-party events must be referred to the Communications Director. It is important that third party fundraisers adhere to this policy, to ensure that media inquiries are handled in a consistent and timely manner.

Right to Withdraw

Sponsoring Organization agrees that Harvest Project has the right to withdraw its name from affiliation with Sponsoring Organization or the Event if the Board of Directors of Harvest Project determines, in its sole discretion that the quality of the Event is or will be injurious to Harvest Project or the Marks. The Harvest Project may at any time withdraw the right to use its name for fundraising or other purposes and the right to conduct fundraising and/or a fundraising event in its name and all such activities shall forth, will cease and be discontinued.

I agree to the above-mentioned conditions.
